

STEN NORDIN

MAYOR OF STOCKHOLM

Mayor Sten Nordin was born in 1956 in Nyköping, south of Stockholm. He studied Economics and Sociology at Uppsala University, and has held a number of Public Offices since the early 1980's. Mr Sten Nordin is a true veteran in municipal politics! He lives in central Stockholm with his wife and two children.

Current positions and assignments

- Mayor of the City of Stockholm
- President of the City Executive Board
- Group leader of the Moderate Party in the City of Stockholm
- Chairman of Stockholm International Fairs
- Member of the Executive Board of the Swedish Transport Administration

Previous positions and assignments

- Member of the Swedish Parliament (2006-2008)
- Government's special spokesperson for the dialogue with municipalities about asylum seekers (2008)
- Opposition Vice Mayor, City of Stockholm (1994-1998 and 2002-2006)
- Vice Mayor responsible for Traffic and Real Estate, City of Stockholm (1998-2002)
- Member of the Executive Board, City of Stockholm (1994-2006)
- Member of the Executive Board, Swedish Association for Local and regional Government
- Vice President of the Stockholm-Mälars Region Council

International Engagements

- Member of EUROCITIES Executive Committee
- Co-leader of C40 Climate Positive Development Program